

Yes you read that right! Talk about a discount for Windows and the lowest price for Windows 7! Students can get a fully licensed version of Windows 7 Pro for only $19! You have to do a little wangling but yes indeed it is legal and for real! In order to get this you must join the Association for Computing Machinery ($19 for students), as part of the membership you get access to the full MSDN Academic Alliance (MSDNAA) catalogue. This membership provides access to hundreds of Microsoft products free of charge. That includes Windows 7!

In the catalog are both 32-bit and 64-bit versions of Windows 7 in English, French, Chinese, and Spanish. All versions and languages are accompanied by a unique product key that works with any version and language of Windows 7 Professional. In all that means you get a total of 8 product keys. Any high-school or undergraduate student qualifies for the student membership according to their form. As a bonus you get copy of the monthly Communications of the ACM \(CACM\), along with access to the electronic issue of Communications through the ACM Digital Library

'
MemberNet

'
TechNews

, ACM's tri-weekly IT news digest,

CareerNews

, ACM's bi-weekly IT career news digest, as well as access to over 2,500 online courses in multiple languages, 1,000 virtual labs, and 1,100 online books, plus full access to the ACM Career Center are included in your member dues. (Members create a free account to access the electronic

CACM

.)

If you are a student and want Windows 7 Pro GO FOT IT!!!